Question	Answer	Marks
1.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Marley's pigtail (old men do not usually wear this hairstyle nowadays)2. Marley's clothing (coat-skirts, tassels on tights and boots) is outdated for men	2 marks
2.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Marley's body was transparent (line 5) so that Scrooge could see the room on the other side through it2. Scrooge feels the "chilling influence of its death-cold eyes" (line 11), referring to motionless, vacant eyes	2 marks
3.	As a form of divine punishment for his earthly sins	1 mark
4.	Instead of metal rings, the chain is made of cash-boxes, locks, keys, purses—items related to keeping and hoarding money—in steel	1 mark
5.	The chain symbolizes Marley's sin of greed, selfishness and hoarding while he was alive. From the various constituents of the chain, we can understand that Marley devoted his life to the making, saving and multiplying of his money (maybe at the cost of love, relationships and helping others)	3 marks
6.	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Scrooge is terrified at the sight of Marley's phantom (the spectre disturbed the very marrow in his bones)2. At the same time, he is doubtful, unsure of what evidence can convince him of Marley's reality and even ridicules the ghostly figure in front of him (he was still incredulous, and fought against his sense; There's more of gravy than of grave about you, whatever you are)	2 marks
7.	Because he thinks the phantom could be a figment of his imagination due to indigestion or bad stomach.	1 mark

8.	Scrooge cracks a joke to soothe his terrified nerves and distract his mind from the fearful figure in front of him so that he can think clearly (any maybe plan his next move)	1 mark
9.	The chain wound around Marley “like a tail” (lines 3-4)	1 mark
10.	Hyperbole	1 mark

Test 15

- Q1 D Moving from left to right, the black triangle moves upwards in each figure and the white circle moves upwards for three figures and then downwards.

Therefore, the missing figure should consist of a black triangle at the base of a fine line and a white circle in the middle of the line.

Therefore, the answer is D.

- Q2 A Moving from left to right, the triangle becomes a blank space and the black circle becomes a triangle. There is always one black spot.

Therefore, the missing figure should consist of circles with a blank space in the bottom left corner and a triangle in the bottom right corner.

Test 15 answers continue on next page

- Q3 A Moving from left to right, the shape becomes wider in each figure and the dot alternates between the two middle horizontal lines.
- Therefore, the missing figure should be wider than the first but narrower than the third figure and the dot should be on the lower line.

Therefore, the answer is A.

- Q4 C Moving from left to right, one square at a time is changed to a square with a cross through it. In the next figure, the crossed square changes to a circle before disappearing in the third figure.

Therefore, the missing figure should consist of a circle in place of the middle square, one square with a cross and the bottom left-hand corner should be blank.

Therefore, the answer is C.

- Q5 A Moving from left to right, the small plus sign alternates with a small minus sign; the small cross with one side joined rotates 90° anticlockwise and the L-shapes at the top rotate 90° clockwise.

Therefore, the missing figure should consist of a small plus sign, the L-shapes should match the second figure and the small cross with one side joined rotated 90° anticlockwise from the previous figure.

Therefore, the answer is A.

- Q6 B Moving from left to right, the small semicircle rotates 90° clockwise in each figure and the black dot moves one place lower.

Therefore, the missing figure should consist of the second dot down being black and the semicircle base at the bottom.

Therefore, the answer is B.

- Q7 B Moving from left to right, the white dot moves one corner clockwise and the black dot two corners clockwise. The parallel lines alternate between top left and top right.

Therefore, the answer is B.

- Q8 C Moving from left to right, the white and black squares alternate. The line with a dot rotates 90° anticlockwise.

Therefore, the missing figure should consist of a diagonal set of squares with black at the top, and the line with a dot at the base on the left.

Therefore, the answer is C.

- Q9 A Moving from left to right, the number of black dots increases by two in each figure, aligned opposite or at right angles to the previously added dots.

Therefore, the missing figure should consist of the same image as the previous figure but with an additional two dots.

Therefore, the answer is A.

- Q10 C Moving from left to right, the bottom shape changes every two figures. There is a triangle, circle and an irregular hexagon in every square. The diagonal shading in the top left figure is always top left to bottom right but the opposite direction for the top right figure.

Therefore, the missing figure should consist of a circle at the bottom, with a triangle (shaded top left to bottom right) and an irregular hexagon (shaded top right to bottom left) at the top.

Therefore, the answer is C.
